- B. The Company reserves the right to amend these Terms and Conditions from time to time at its own discretion.
- C. All Clients access the Website and the Services at their own risk.

The Client understands and agrees that:

1. FREE CONSULTATIONS

- 1.1 The purpose of any free consultation is for the Company to understand the Client's reasons for considering using the Services of the Company and to advise as to whether the Company can provide any Services to the Client.
- 1.2 Booking or participating in a free consultation does not oblige either the Client to book subsequent paid Services, or the Company to provide subsequent paid Services.
- 1.3 The Company is not obliged under any circumstances to provide a free consultation to a Client. All free consultations are provided solely at the discretion of the Company.

2. CONSULTANCY

- 2.1 All Consultancy services must be booked in advance with the Company, and are not confirmed until the Company has sent an email to the Client confirming the details of the Consultancy booking.
- 2.2 The Client will be informed of the price and duration of the Consultancy services at the time of booking. The price quoted at time of booking is based on online delivery of Consultancy. If the Client requires in person services instead, reasonable expenses will be required from the Client in addition. The Client will be informed of any such expenses at the time of booking. Any in person services are provided at the sole discretion of the Company.
- 2.3 All Consultancy services are provided at the sole discretion of the Company.
- 2.4 All Consultancy services must be paid for by the Client no later than 24 hours ahead of the first Consultancy session or first delivery of services. If the Company has not received payment by 24 hours in advance of the booked session, the session or services can be cancelled at the sole discretion of the Company.
- 2.5 Single Consultancy sessions may be cancelled by the Client with a full refund up to 48 hours before, and with a 50% refund up to 24 hours before, the booked session time. No refund will be provided for sessions cancelled by the Client within 24 hours of the booked session time.
- 2.6 Single Consultancy sessions booked within 24 hours of the session time must be paid for by the Client immediately upon booking.
- 2.7 Although this is avoided wherever possible, if it is necessary for the Company to cancel a single Consultancy session the Client will be entitled to receive a full refund of the session fee paid by the Client. Alternatively, the Client can choose to rebook the session for another date and time.

3. PRIVATE INVESTMENT

The additional and specific terms and conditions governing Private Investment services provided by the Company vary according to the individual investments being considered by, or provided to, the Client. In addition to these Terms and Conditions each Client will be provided with appropriate terms and conditions for their circumstances after the Free Consultation.

4. DELIVERY OF CONSULTANCY

- 4.1 The Company uses reasonable endeavours at all times to provide appropriate Consultancy services for every Client.
- 4.2 In the unlikely event that a Client considers that the Consultancy services provided by the Company were of an unsatisfactory standard, the Client is required to inform the Company of this at the earliest possible opportunity, and in any event no later than 24 hours after the Consultancy was delivered. The Company will then either use reasonable endeavours to provide alternative Consultancy services to the Client, or will offer the Client a 50% refund for the Consultancy in question. Any claims under this clause for a refund or alternative Consultancy will not be valid if initiated more than 24 hours after the delivery of the Consultancy.
- 4.3 No specific work, project, targets, outcomes or guarantees of any kind are agreed to, provided by or assured by the Company to the Client unless specifically agreed separately in writing (including via writing in email) between the parties prior to the commencement of the Consultancy services.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 5.1 The Company will not disclose any information about a Client to any third party without that Client's prior express written permission, except where:
- a) the information is already in the public domain;
 - b) the Client has reasonable grounds for believing that the Client has committed, or is intending to commit, a criminal offence;
 - c) where it is necessary for litigation or dispute resolution proceedings; or
 - d) where it is necessary for compliance with, or reporting to, regulatory bodies.

- 7.1 The Company will under no circumstances whatsoever be liable, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, arising under or in connection with the Services and/or Website for: any loss of profits, sales, business, or revenue; loss or corruption of data, information or software; loss of business opportunity; loss of anticipated savings; loss of goodwill; or any indirect or consequential loss on the part of any Client or other third party even if foreseeable.
- 7.2 The Company will not be liable under any circumstances whatsoever for any loss or damage, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, even if foreseeable, arising under or in connection with: use of, or inability to use, the Website; or use of or reliance on any content displayed on the Website or provided within the Services.
- 7.3 The Company will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever caused by a virus, distributed denial-of-service attack, or other technologically harmful material that may infect a computer equipment, computer programs, data or other proprietary material due to use of the Website or to downloading of any content on it, or on any website linked to it.
- 7.4 The Company assumes no responsibility for the content of websites linked on the Website. Such links should not be interpreted as endorsement of those linked websites. The Company will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever that may arise from use of them.
- 7.5 Except as expressly stated in these Terms, the Company does not give any representation, warranties or undertakings in relation to the Services and/or the Website. Any representation, condition or warranty which might be implied or incorporated into these Terms by statute, common law or otherwise is excluded to the fullest extent permitted by law. In particular, the Company will not be responsible for ensuring that the content provided through the Services and/or Website is suitable for a Client's purposes.
- 7.6 All liability is excluded to the extent permitted by law including any implied terms.
- 7.7 Clients shall indemnify the Company in full against all liabilities, costs, expenses, damages and losses (including but not limited to any direct, indirect or consequential losses, loss of profit, loss of reputation and all interest, penalties and legal costs (calculated on a full indemnity basis) and all other professional costs and expenses) suffered or incurred by the Company arising out of or in connection with any breach by the Client of these Terms.

8. COMMUNICATIONS

- 8.1 Any notice or other communication given by the Company to a Client, or by a Client to the Company, under or in connection with the Services and/or the Website shall be given in writing via email, or in writing via recorded delivery post.

- 8.2 A notice or other communication shall be deemed to have been received: if sent by recorded delivery post on the date delivery is recorded; or if sent by e-mail, two Business Days after the sent date of the email.
- 8.3 In proving the service of any notice it will be sufficient to prove; in the case of a recorded delivery letter, that such letter was recorded as received on the tracking system of the postal service; and in the case of an e-mail, that such e-mail was sent to the specified e-mail address of the addressee and was not refused or bounced-back.

9. ANCILLIARY TERMS

- 9.1 These Terms and any document expressly referred to in them constitute the entire agreement between the Company and Clients and supersede and extinguish all previous agreements, promises, assurances, warranties, representations and understandings between the parties, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter, except where a Client has a separate contract with the Company. Where a Client has a separate contract with the Company these Terms and Conditions will additionally apply except where they directly conflict with the terms and conditions of the separate contract. In the instance of a conflict the terms and conditions of the separate contract will prevail.
- 9.2 Implied terms are expressly excluded.
- 9.3 The Company may transfer its rights and obligations to another person or entity, but this will not affect Client's rights or obligations under these Terms. Clients may only transfer their rights or obligations under these Terms to another person or entity if the Company agrees to this in writing.
- 9.4 No other person or entity shall have any rights to enforce any of these Terms, whether under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 or otherwise.
- 9.5 Each of the clauses of these Terms operates independently. If any court or relevant authority decides that any of them are unlawful or unenforceable, the remaining clauses will remain in full force and effect.
- 9.6 If the Company fails to insist that Clients perform any of their obligations under these Terms, or if the Company does not enforce its rights or delays in doing so, that will not mean that the Company has waived its rights and will not mean that Clients do not have to comply with those obligations. If the Company does waive a default by a Client, it will only do so in writing, and that will not mean that the Company will automatically waive any later default.
- 9.7 These Terms and Conditions shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales have exclusive jurisdiction.
